A New Jersey Mayor says if he can keep politics out of the town it will continue to run free of any tax on the people.—Sure he can—politics are the most expensive luxuries that ever infested a body of co-operate.

Last Friday a mass meeting at Buckingham C. H., the democratic Ex. Committee was chosen the first time in many years. The following were elected:

E. W. Hubbard, C. L. Morris, W. D. Snoddy, A. M. Porter, Munro Johns, Hamilton Agee, Nelson Terdall, A. J. Stegar, M. L. Gregory, J. A. Twyman, A. C. Wood, John Layne, A. J. Terrell, A. H. Williamby, C. O. Davidson, Geo. Elam, L. P. Gills, and L. P. Gilliam.

Co-Ops Ready

The following special telegram to Times-Virginian was received today.

The Raleigh, N. C. tobacco Growers Co-operative Association will open its fourth season in the dark fired and sun cured tobacco belts of Virginia Tuesday, November 17th when twenty-one co-operative receiving points will begin paying out to the growers the highest cash advance for dark tobacco ever paid by the association according to the announcement received today from its Richmond office. The following markets of the tobacco association will open for deliveries of dark fired weed: Arlington, Amherst, Altavista, Appomattox, Amelia, Bedford, Brookneal, Blackstone, Cumberland, Drakes Branch, Dillwyn, Lynchburg, Farmville, Pamplin, Petersburg, and Phenix. The sun cured markets of the tobacco association, to open November 17 are, Ashland, Columbia, Milford, Richmond and Rocky Mt. The association has not yet been successful in securing a sixty-five per cent cash payment of Banker's Valuation to its members in the dark tobacco district of Virginia, but will maintain the appraised value on all grades of sun cured tobacco and on all except five grades of this year's dark fired crop.

According to the association's dark leaf department, more than half of all the dark tobacco raised in Virginia during the past three years has been delivered to the co-operative association. During that period Virginia farmers have received more than double the price for shipping tobacco, than was paid them during the years immediately preceding America's entry into the world war to $7 a hundred pounds in 1913; $7.30 in 1914 and $8 in 1915. Dark fired tobacco in Virginia since the organization of the marketing association has averaged $18 in 1922, $17.50 in 1923, and $19.43 in 1924 according to figures of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The cash advance which the association is to pay its members for the 1925 crop will be far in excess of the prices paid on auction floors, in normal years before the organization of the farmers for orderly marketing. The fact that Virginia farmers have already distributed a new five-year marketing contract to run from 1927 through 1931 and have signed up millions of pounds of tobacco for co-operative marketing at the beginning of thirteen months campaign indicates their preference for the co-operative method of selling their tobacco.

O'Brien Supervisor

Monday at Charlotte C. H., Judge Hutcheson on hearing of F. A. O'Brien and P. W. Coleman, applicants for appointment to the vacancy on the Board of Supervisor's for the member from Clover Hill district appointed Mr. O'Brien for the unexpired term for which E. M. Drinkard was elected and who was removed from his office at the October term of court.

Petitions were presented to the Judge endorsing the candidates and after considering same the Judge had the order entered and Mr. O'Brien met with the Board yesterday.

After the appointment was made Mr. O'Brien tendered his resignation as member of School Board and thereupon the Judge on a petition appointed T. J. Legion on the School Board for the unexpired time of Mr. O'Brien.

The appointments are not pleasing to many in the district, yet they are both regarded as men of a high type of characters and will no doubt make efficient officers.

WOODLAWN

One extreme follows another, after such a dry summer we are having plenty of rain and it has made some of the farmers late in sowing their wheat.

Miss Louise Oaks and Mrs. J. L. Havey spent Thursday evening with Miss Celene Woodson.

Miss Olivia Rush and Susie Cheatham entertained a number of friends Sunday night.

PAMPLIN

The Woman's Missionary Union held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. T. R. Inge, on last Wednesday. An interesting program was rendered, after which refreshments were served.

The Executeil Board, of W. M. U., Appomattox association met at the Baptist church last Saturday. Efforts to raise a liberal offering, known as "Lottie Moore" offering was stressed. It was decided that the Appomattox association observe a period of prayer at 1:30 p. m. each day for the cause. The "Lottie Moore" offering will be used to raise the debt of foreign building. We trust that each W. M. U. society will observe the week of prayer from December 6--13.

How it heats every room —instead of only one

Because it operates like a furnace instead of a stove, the Sunbeam Cabinet Heater is able to keep the first and second floors of this small home warm and comfortable. It draws the air in at the bottom, heats it and spreads it out through the top in such volume that the warm air circulates into every nook and corner of every room. Cool and used will give the same good results.

Since there is only one fire to feed, a saving in work is effected. Coal and wood will give the same good results.

PERSONAL MENTION

S. G. Harwood, of Jarretts is a guest of his brother, A. R. Harwood here.

Armistice Day was quietly observed here yesterday by our banks being closed.

The Co-Ops will open the tobacco market here Tuesday, November 17th.

Born to Mr. Charles Evant Hunter, wife lives in Roanoke, a son—Gordon Hunter, on Nov. 9.

Miss Mary Plunkett, who has been on an extended visit to Norfolk is home again.

Asa Meadows of Richmond, has accepted a position with the Times.

Rev. C. G. Garland, of Richmond, will fill the Baptist pulpit next Sunday morning and night.

Harold Spencer has acquired an interest in the Chas. F. James drug business here.

W. E. Lee purchased of E. T. Mitchell the People's Cafe, and C. W. Cawthorn is in charge as manager. Meals at all hours will be served.

No more elections now, for which the people are thankful, until we shall turn out to vote for Harry Tucker, for Congress next year.

The Street Committe of the town is at work spreading gravel, and other improvements are contemplated, which will include the lighting of the town.

A. A. Babcock, of Gladstone, has just bought him two coon dogs. He tried them out and brought in three coons one night. Rah for "Dob" and his dogs—"Ruff" and "Red Ranger.

Owing to the Presbyterian meeting a small business meeting of the Eastern Star was held Friday evening and a social clipping will be given early in December for the O. E. S. Home in Richmond.

It will soon be tax time again. Treasurer Burke gives notice of his annual rounds in this issue. Pay before December 1st, and save 5 per cent penalty.

The open floor tobacco market opened here Monday with a fair offering of the weed. Prices were satisfactory and offerings are increasing each day.

One of the needs of this 4-horse town is better mail facilities, which can be had for the asking. One train each day is not enough to handle parcel post, or the mail conveniently. Only one train carrying mail and parcel post is scheduled to stop here. All trains should stop at Appomattox and carry mail, and parcel post.

The Highway Commission has allocated money for roads for 1926, and we observe that $.0,-000 be set apart for the road east of Appomattox, and $175,000 for the Concord-Lynchburg road. With the completion of the road to Lynchburg it will mean a 40 minute drive to that city from this town.

Away from his God,
Away from your Heaven,

Where the Saints of all ages,
In unity dwell,
Sing the song of redemption,

Through the shadow of death,
My feet have trod,
I reign in glory now."

CHANGE OF LIFE
Virginia Lady Improved After She Took Cardui.

"I had been going through the change of life and it seemed to me that everything got wrong," says Mrs. Dean Hawks, of Bristol, Va. "I suffered from shortness of breath and I could not go up the steps without stopping to rest several times.
"When I would try to hoe in my garden I would soon give out. I could scarcely hoe two rows before my breath was coming in gasps.
"My sister-in-law had taken Cardui and she thought it might do me good, so she told me to try it. I got a bottle (of Cardui) and began to take it by the directions and I began to improve after a few doses. My general condition was so much better after the first bottle that I got another, and another, until I had taken six. Now I am a well woman.
"Cardui is a great medicine. Since I took it I feel like a new woman. I had had female trouble for years. I am glad to recommend to other women a medicine which has helped me."
